Y Nhen Adrong

Fullstack Web Developer

Career Objective

I am a third-year Information Technology student with a career goal of becoming a Fullstack Web Developer. Through personal and group projects such as a mini e-commerce website using PHP CI4, a vegetable-selling website using Java JSP, and a Todo application, I have developed solid skills in both frontend and backend development. I am seeking an internship opportunity to gain practical experience, enhance my expertise, and contribute to high-quality web projects.
